About Ambedkar College

Ambedkar College, a General Degree College under the Department of Education (Higher), Government of Tripura, is situated at Laldahar, a village of scenic beauty in the bank of the river Manu in Fatikroy under Kumarghat subdivision of the Unakoti district of Tripura. The college was established on 26th September 1991. Initially the college was running in the campus of Fatikroy Class XII School, afterwards on 15th August 1999 the college got its present permanent campus, which was acquired at the cost of vacating thirty-four families residing in that area who were being rehabilitated by the local administration in Govt. land within 1 KM from the college. Since the initial days of this college marked with the sacrifice of common men of this land and through years of struggles from various fronts, this college has grown to its present form, which comprises of 11.3 acre encompassing an old and a new campus and a sizable number of academicians along with impressive numbers of students. The college is permanently affiliated to the Tripura University (A Central University) and is recognized by University Grant Commission (UGC) under section 2 (f) and 12 (B) since 2010.
