Report on One Day Workshop on “Classical and Modern Approach in Biosystematics & Taxonomy”

The workshop was inaugurated on March 26, 2024, at 11:00 am, with the lightening of a holy lamp. The HoD-in-charge of the Department of Zoology at Ambedkar College, Fatikroy, Tripura (U), delivered the first introduction address. Following that, Mr. Tapas Bhoumik, joint secretary of the teacher council, gave a brief lecture about the significance of the taxonomic workshop in the biological sciences. Following that, all the students and faculties of the Bio-Science department, heard from speaker Dr. Prantosh Roy (retired principal), a well-known taxonomist in the state, about his research and extensive academic career. After that a Hands-on session was taken by the taxonomist. Finally, the college's principal, Dr. Subrata Sharma, concluded the event with a vote of gratitude and the playing of the national song.
